

One Family Makes 11 Applications For New Victory Bonds

Canvassers Lose Day To King Winter But They're Not Much Down From Last Year's First Three Days

With harder sledding definitely expected, and that literally as well as figuratively true on stormy Monday, the first three days of the war loan in North York were a little under last year.

There were many encouragements to the organizers and canvassers, however. A Vaughan township mother made applications for herself and each of ten children. Newmarket Boy Scouts made the first purchase in Newmarket. Mrs. Ethel Winters, 17 Main St., made purchase No. 2.

The rural townships, always hard to cover in winter because of distances and road conditions, were not doing just as well as desired, but the northern townships of North York were doing definitely better than in the 1941 campaign.

Victory loan events for next week include a Victory loan speaker Monday night at the Lions club and the Newmarket

WINS VICTORY BOND

Orville Clarke won a new 1942 $50 Victory bond at a men's party at the home of Dr. L. W. Dales last evening.

Veterans sponsored concert, "The Masquers," in the town hall Tuesday evening.

Half A Thousand Dollars Rolled Up At Armitage

CHOCOLATE CAKE BRINGS $8 IN PATRIOTIC PUR- CHASING COMPETITION

They must be good-looking people who live in the Yonge St. Armitage district, if "handsome is as handsome does."

Of course, some Newmarket people like Fred Smith, the Brown-Vickers automatic auctioneer, who, amplified by a megaphone, gave his services to the people of Britain, and Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards, who had the thrill of seeing a chocolate cake from her own oven bring no less than $8, had a finger in the pie. The event was an auction sale Tuesday evening at Walnut View Rendezvous.

Chief cook was said to be J. W. Bowser, Yonge St. farmer and Aurora business man. And "when the pie was opened" it was found that there was over $500 for the British War Vic-

DISLOCATES SHOULDER

Mrs. Thos. McCormick suffered a dislocated shoulder one day last week, when she slipped on a newly waxed floor. She is getting along nicely.

Some of the ring-leaders were Roy Armitage, George Billings, Mrs. W. R. Armstrong, Gordon Beckett, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reddick, Edgar Dennis, Hawkes Robinson, Carson Robinson, Roy Middlebrook, Walter Terry and Mrs. E. H. Robinson.

The officers of Newmarket military camp paid $15 for a goat. Someone bought a basket of oranges for $5. Scott Bales bought for $50 a purebred calf given by Mrs. Robinson. A purebred bull calf given by J. W. Bowser brought $49.

Pickles, cakes, pork (on the hoof) all brought patriotic prices.

War Victims Benefit As Specialty Cripples Clash

MUSIC, CARNIVAL, HOCKEY FEUD, ARE ALL ON PROGRAM

Tonight's the night! Promptly at 8 p.m. at Newmarket hockey arena, Gordon L. Manning will face off the puck and Office Specialty night will commence! Tonight's program, for all-round entertainment and keenly contested sport, will long be unequalled.

The great feud is to be settled! After this evening's hockey game it will be known just whether the "Sawdust Snorters" Wood Shoppers are all they claim to be or whether they'll take a ripping from their arch enemies south of Timothy St., the "Steel Rippers."

The metal shop have suffered some severe set-backs. The coach and an important member of the team, Eddie Gibson, contracted blood-poisoning in his hand and it is unlikely that he'll be on the ice. Also two star players, Grant Crowder and "Farmer" Dennis, have reported today for military duty and, unless a miracle happens, they'll be polishing buttons tonight instead of "polishing" the Wood Shoppers. On the other hand the "Sawdust Snorters" too have had their reverses. Their line-up has been rearranged, and it is expected that "Wee Mervie" Firth will play goal.

The Lions club, aided by a selected group of men from Newmarket military camp, have prepared a carnival which will compare favorably with the Toronto club show. The Newmarket Citizens' band have kindly consented to donate their instrumental music. An added treat will be a vivid play-by-play description of the game by "Poster Hewitt."

Tonight's performances, as every person will leave the arena's two box seats filled to the brim, are of the highest quality. So on Newmarket. Turn and help the British War Victims' Fund. Show them "over there" that you're backing them "over here."

SET UP RECORD

With the arrival of another group—30-day men recalled for permanent service—at Newmarket training camp today, the "population" there establishes a new high record of nearly 1,600. Few beds will be empty at the camp tonight.

A. E. COCKERILL DIES, WAS NATIVE OF KING

After an illness of about two months Albert Edward Cockerill, husband of the late Cecelia Howlett, died on Tuesday in his 78th year. He had been a resident of Newmarket for 35 or 40 years.

Mr. Cockerill was born in King township and as a young man had been a farmer. He married Cecelia Howlett of East Gwillimbury on Feb. 3, 1892, who predeceased him.

For a number of years after he came to Newmarket Mr. Cockerill was employed by the Metropolitan railway. A few years ago he was forced to retire because of ill health. For the last two years Mr. Cockerill had made his home with his sister, Mrs. Florence Clarkson, Timothy St.

He is also survived by two other sisters, Mrs. Alice Thompson of Toronto and Mrs. Eva Miner of North Bay, and three brothers, Arthur and Wellington of Toronto and Fred of Stouffville. Two brothers predeceased him.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at the Roadhouse and Rose funeral chapel by Rev. Arthur Greer of the Christian church. Interment was made in Newmarket cemetery.

Mrs. Fred Proctor, Yonge St., who has been confined to her home for the past year, is able to be out again, and had afternoon tea with Mrs. Norman Rogers and her mother, Mrs. John F. Smith, Yonge St., on Wednesday.

EDUCATION IN TEMPERANCE IS N. Y. PROGRAM

WHITCHURCH TOWNSHIP GIRL IS WINNER OF ORATORY CONTEST MEET AT TRINITY

The North York temperance federation convention, held in Trinity United church, Newmarket, last Friday afternoon and evening, proved an unusually interesting occasion, although the attendance was not so good as in some other years.

As the president, Dr. J. R. Wilson of Richmond Hill, was delayed in coming, Dr. A. E. Runnells of Trinity church presided for the first hour, welcomed the delegates and led in devotions.

Rev. Dr. C. W. DeMille, secretary of the Ontario Temperance Federation, addressed the gathering, giving enlightenment as to present conditions and encouraging persistent, earnest efforts for a better temperance situation to prevail over the appalling conditions of the present time.

Members working on legislation reported contacts with government officials and the presentation of protests against the harm and waste which alcoholic beverages are now causing.

Mrs. Perry Winch of Keswick, superintendent of work for education and publicity, reported that she had collected recipes for non-alcoholic beverages and had had sheets of these printed and distributed. She was highly commended for her work and asked to continue this service.

She reported also that many schools in the county had studied and written examinations on the five W.C.T.U. lessons on scientific temperance and that several pupils have received pins for having won certificates in this course for five years.

Mrs. Elmer Starr of Bogartown, convener of the childhood and youth committee, expressed regret that more work had not been done in this county in connection with the Youth Temperance Posts and other temperance programs in youth groups during the year.

Youth Temperance Posts are sponsored by the provincial federation, which provides temperance programs for any group or society already organized. She stated that with the generous help of the federation office 200 copies, accompanied by sheets of rules, of suggested topics for oratorical contests, had

CHRISTIAN CHURCH SOCIETIES WILL MEET

The regular monthly meeting of the Senior Ladies' Aid and Missionary society of the Congregational-Christian church will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Winkworth, 25 Pearson St., on Wednesday, Feb. 25, at 2:30 p.m. All are asked to please note the change of date from Thursday to Wednesday.

IS OVERSEAS

Wm. Dougan, who is with the R.C.A.F., is another Newmarket boy serving overseas.

Uses Skeleton Speechless But Articulate To Show How Bones Break And How Bones Knit

Because of bad weather Dr. J. H. Wesley's lecture on fractures has been postponed until Monday, Feb. 23, at 8 p.m., in the town hall.

Owing to a concert for the Victory loan the regular Tuesday night meeting has been changed to Monday.

Dr. Wesley has prepared an interesting and instructive lecture on fractures. With the aid of a human skeleton this promises to be one of the most practical lectures in the course.

Mrs. R. J. Rogers, R.N., and H. C. Westbrook's class will be in charge of the demonstration.

Capt. A. H. Woods, adjutant of the Newmarket training camp, will give a short lecture on "The Danger of Defeatism."

FOR YOUNGSTERS WHO HAVEN'T HAD TOXOID

There are three reasons why all children in town should be toxoided against diphtheria.

First: The seriousness of the present epidemic in the city of Toronto and the surrounding municipalities.

Second: Because of the continuous movement of troops to and from the Newmarket military camp.

Third: Because there are a lot of youngsters, school age and pre-school age in town who have not been toxoided.

On this account it has been decided to hold another free toxoid clinic, commencing Monday, Feb. 23, when the nurse and the doctor will be prepared to take care of all children at the office of the M.O.H. from 4 to 5 p.m. Bring the children or send them with a note of consent.

LOWER SCHOOL TERM RESULTS ANNOUNCED

Reports have just been issued at Newmarket high school covering the work of November, December and January. Following, in order of merit, are the names of students who have obtained an average of at least 65 percent without any failures:

Grade IX-A: Doris Proctor, Marie Rollings, Irma Baker, Margaret Boddington, Marjorie Baile, Irene Farren, Marion Lockie, Patricia Hargreaves.

Grade IX-B: Ruth Wilnot, Marion King, Barbara Attrill, Marion Morton, Iris Crandell, Margaret Fraser, Frances Johnston, Betty Skinner, Dorothy Lee.

Grade IX-C: Tom McHale, Donald King, Tom Dales, Alan Martin, Bob Peters.

Grade IX-D: Gwendolyn Wilnot, Donald Thompson, Blanche Breen, Ruth Thurin, Ruth Hill, Jean McFale.

Grade X-C: Stuart Starr, Jeanne Duncan, Mona Dean, Betty Mitchell, Gwen Smith.

Grade X-A: Reta Horner, June Bunn, Ruth Winger, Jack Spillert, Betty Stewart, Leonard Burch, Desmond Burke, Margery Hall, Shirley Creed, Joanne Peppiatt, Murray Dixon, Margaret McKimming.

PLAN VICTORY LOAN RALLY AT SHARON

The parents, children and teachers of East Gwillimbury are invited to attend a Victory loan rally in Sharon hall next Wednesday evening at 8 p.m., D.S.T.

A very interesting program has been arranged. Dr. R. L. Hewitt of Newmarket will give an illustrated discussion on "The Dental Health of the Child." There will be a chorus composed of several schools from East Gwillimbury. A solo is to be given by Miss Kendrick of Holland Landing.

There will also be a speaker for the Victory loan campaign, Inspector C. A. Lapp of the public schools expects to be in attendance. Everyone is welcome to attend to make this a successful evening.

BOOST WAR LOAN AND SOLDIERS' COMFORTS

In one of the greatest assemblies of international stage and radio talent, the "Masquers" will be at the Newmarket town hall on Tuesday evening, for one performance in support of the Victory loan campaign. This splendid group of top-ranking stars have been winners in the Dominion drama festivals but, for the Victory loan campaign, have temporarily deserted the drama to present a sparkling revue.

This light-hearted show has been presented before some 125,000 men of Canada's armed services in camp, and presents a melange of new songs, new dances and new sketches.

Appearing in the 21 scenes of the two-hour show are Connie Vernon, lovely comedienne and uncanny impersonator of Grace Fields and other stage and screen celebrities, John J. Giordano, magician and illusionist, Dorothy Elford, well-known pianist, Irene Martin and Bill Antill, duet-singers, and other artists.

Net proceeds will go to the Newmarket Veterans' overseas soldiers' comforts fund.

IS AT CAMP BORDEN

Pte. John (Jack) McClure is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McClure of Ravenshoe. He is stationed at Camp Borden.

SEED FAIR WINNERS DIVIDE $200 PURSE

York county's annual seed fair is being held this year at Woodbridge on March 13, under the sponsorship of the county Crop Improvement Association.

This is the first time that the seed fair has been held there and this show, and the fact that Woodbridge has one of the most up-to-date cleaning plants in the province, should interest farmers in better seed in that district.

The secretary of the association, W. M. Cockburn, urges exhibitors to have their entries in the Orange Hall early.

A short tour of the seed cleaning plant will be arranged, and in the afternoon John D. Macleod of the provincial seeds and weeds branch, will give an address on grain rusts and show slides on how the presence of the common barberry bush increases rust damage.

The prize lists will be mailed to all interested farmers in the near future announcing $200 worth of cash prizes. Special prizes are being given to the two exhibitors with the greatest number of prizes.

The Woodbridge Agricultural Society is working to make this fair a success. John Kellam, Nashville, is the Crop Improvement Association president and Bruce Beer, King, is vice-president.

Sutton Visits Midland, Takes 7-6 Victory

Sutton defeated the Midland intermediates on Friday evening in Midland to the tune of 7-6 in a hard-fought battle.

Sutton made the winning goal just three minutes before the end of the game. Midland made a desperate but unsuccessful effort to tie the score.

IN THE FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

Doings of those serving their country on land, on the sea, and in the air.

Contributions welcomed for this column—Phone 12.

Miss Lenore Norris, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Norris, of Toronto, formerly of Newmarket, has been accepted by the C.W.A.A.F. and is now in barracks at old Haverhill College, Jarvis St., Toronto, for training. Miss Norris is still regarded as a Newmarket girl and her many friends here will be glad to get word of her from time to time.

Volunteer Helen Brymer of the C.W.A.C., Toronto, spent the weekend at the home of her mother, Mrs. Clara Brymer.

LAC George Smart of the R.C.A.F., Dauphin, Man., is spending two weeks furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elsworth Smart, He returns to his duties tomorrow.

A farewell party was given in the Royal Hotel, Toronto, on Tuesday evening in honor of Capt. Dr. J. W. Bartholomew, a number from Newmarket attending.

TEMPERANCEVILLE SAY OTTAWA SHOULD HELP DIRT FARMERS

TREND IN KING TOWNSHIP HAS NOT BEEN AWAY FROM OWNERSHIP

"FORUMS" MEET

In the study of "Who Will Own the Land?" Temperanceville farm radio forums on Monday learned that according to the 1931 census about 52 percent of Canadian farms were fully owned and mortgage free, about 29 percent were owned but mortgaged, 10 percent were rented, while 9 percent were partly owned and partly rented.

The Temperanceville forums considered it fortunate that the trend in their community has not been away from farm ownership.

The south forum had a heated discussion on moneyed men coming in and buying up land. Some contended that these generally improve their buildings but are often no asset to the community since they do not have to share their work with their neighbors or take part in the community life and in some cases they do not work their land properly because they are not dependent on any income from it.

The north forum, meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arwood Harman, agreed that where farmers are losing their land through no fault of their own, perhaps through the costs of illness, the government should advance money and help secure seed and livestock. Money should not be provided, they thought, unless the applicant is a reliable, experienced farmer. Better markets and lower costs of production were more desirable, they felt, than further loans to those already deeply in debt. They maintained that co-operative purchasing would be an advantage, since it would eliminate the middleman's profits and enable the farmer to buy at lower costs and to share in the profits.

The south group, convened by Mr. Middleton and held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Boynton, concluded that a co-operative business in a district brings benefits to all the people, whether they buy co-operatively or not, since it tends to lower the prices of competitive firms. Mrs. N. Thompson conducted the recreation period.

Mrs. Roy Jennings was discussion convenor of the north group and Mrs. C. Henshaw led the games. Lunch was provided by Mrs. J. Gillman, who was unable to attend because of illness in her family.

The topic to be discussed on Feb. 23 is "Will the Soil Last?" Meetings will be held at the homes of C. Beynon and C. Henshaw.

The municipal doctor system will be the theme of a number of meetings to be held in this county within the next few weeks. Hon. George Howley will address a meeting this week and one at Yellowknife under the auspices of the Federation of Agriculture next week. Temperanceville expects to hear Mr. Howley on Thursday evening, March 5.

DANCE NETS $98.23 FOR RED CROSS FUND

An enjoyable time was spent last Friday evening by all who attended the Red Cross dance held in the high school auditorium. The sum of $98.23 was raised for Red Cross work. Art West and his orchestra supplied the music.

Mrs. N. R. Spooner won the lucky heart dance, and Mrs. Thos. Leach won the prize in the Paul Jones' dance.

Dainty refreshments were served by the ladies of the Red Cross society.

Greenshirts Lose To Collingwood 11-2

Sutton Greenshirts were handed an avalanche of rubber by Collingwood Shipbuilders at Collingwood on Monday evening when they returned home on the short end of an 11-2 score.

This win left Collingwood in first place in the O.H.A. Intermediate A group 1, with Midland, Cravenhurst and Sutton all with the same number of points behind. The Shipbuilders are in the senior B division and will enter the group play-offs.

One of the best crowds of the season attended the game, which was marked by slow, sticky ice.

In the final period, Gibney sandwiched the Greenshirts' second score in between a couple scored by the Shipbuilders. McCormack was the other goal-getter for Sutton.

Victory Chorus In Stirring Concert And Speakers In Warning Vein Give War Loan Campaign A Boost

Outstanding musical entertainment was provided by the Aurora Victory chorus, under Conductor Illyd Harris, at a patriotic rally in the interests of the Victory loan campaign at Trinity United church on Tuesday evening. About 400 people attended.

Mr. Harris was ably assisted by Mrs. Harris at the piano and Miss Marjorie Andrews of Aurora at the organ. Mrs. Harris beautifully introduced the different groups of chorus numbers with poetry.

"When Winston Churchill, the greatest man the British empire has produced in the last two generations, after two and a half years of war says that we are moving 'into the storm,' and no one knows better what a storm means, we can all realize the seriousness of the situation," declared Captain Aubrey Davis, chairman of the North York Victory loan committee, in introducing the guest speaker, Capt. the Rev. Norman Rawson of Hamilton.

"We must drop the complacency already too prevalent in our country today," Capt. Davis said. "The young man in a case of this kind would feel that he wants to stand on the deck of a destroyer or fly in a four-engined bomber, but that is a privilege granted to but few. But each and every one has a responsibility resting on his own shoulders, to see that the sinews of war are provided—that is what is called for in the Victory loan. I hope that the town of Newmarket, although the objective is nearly twice as high, will stand as high as it did in the last loan."

Assisting the chorus as guest artist was little 11-year-old Miss Olga Pliszka, of Toronto, of Ukrainian parentage, who played several charming violin selections and who delighted the audience with her brilliant talent.

"The fall of Singapore is the greatest single disaster of our armies for many centuries," Capt. Rawson stated in a fiery challenge to his audience to support the loan. "Singapore brings the war to our door. Its loss means that Japan will have unimpeded action in the Indian Ocean and we have nothing to stop them. India may fall. The Dutch East Indies may be swiftly overrun. It is the beginning of the death throes of Australia, unless we get help soon. Japan may then come down the western coast from the Aleutian Islands and, once there, there isn't a city, town or hamlet in Ontario that will be safe from their marauding attacks. I believe the year will not go out into this part of the event."

The program closed with a magnificent rendition of Elgar's "Land of Hope and Glory," by the Victory chorus.

The church was attractively decorated. A tall red and blue V formed the background. The lighting was effective. Harvey McCordick, W. E. Morton and the Office Specialty and Davis Leather companies decorated the church. Two days work went into this part of the event.

Compulsory Toxoiding May Come, Suggests Dr. Wesley

PROTECTION AGAINST DIPH- THERIA URGED ON PUBLIC BY M.O.H.

"The way in which teachers, parents and children have responded to the call for immunization against diphtheria, scarlet fever, whooping-cough, and smallpox is a great tribute to their intelligence," Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., stated this week. "Of all the toxoid-preventable diseases, diphtheria comes first, because it lurks where least suspected by parent or physician and its presence is only suspected when the child has passed to a stage where the antitoxine, even in huge doses, has no effect."

"Sixty years ago, when your M.O.H. was only a small boy in town attending the old brown school on the hill where Alexander Muir taught, diphtheria was a deadly plague, and many whole families were wiped out by this deadly disease. Children would come down sick with it and die in 24 or 48 hours and doctors were powerless to save them."

"Because we have been practically free from diphtheria for some years, and because of the wonderful discovery of diphtheria antitoxine, a whole lot of people have become careless and are inclined to neglect this new prevention of the disease, called toxoiding. This toxoiding is universally acknowledged by doctors, scientists and parents to be simple, safe and sure."

"In spite of the fact that the board of health has held different toxoid clinics in the town schools (the last of which being late in 1941) when there were about 150 done, there are still a large number of children not done."

WAS FIRST TO JOIN

Pte. Wm. Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Raymond, was the first Newmarket boy to join the active forces. He joined in Winnipeg. Pte. Raymond went overseas in February, 1940.

before there are air raids on coastal cities, New York and Boston, and perhaps Halifax.

"What we have been doing is not good enough," he said. "We are still losing the war. All government departments, whether in Great Britain or elsewhere, ought to begin to treat the people of this empire not as school children but as men and women, who, if told the truth, will measure up to their best."

The program closed with a magnificent rendition of Elgar's "Land of Hope and Glory," by the Victory chorus.

The church was attractively decorated. A tall red and blue V formed the background. The lighting was effective. Harvey McCordick, W. E. Morton and the Office Specialty and Davis Leather companies decorated the church. Two days work went into this part of the event.

quite a scare in Toronto, where there is quite an epidemic. There are many thousands of children there that have not been immunized, they claim, due to apathy and ignorance.

"When this immunization is so important, and there is so little possibility of harm from it, the only way of having it done would be by making it compulsory by provincial mandate. At present toxoiding is optional with the parents and their written consent must be obtained before it can be done."

WHAT CAN WE DO?

Northern York county people are bending their backs this week to do the job that has been given them for February, 1942—to attain their war loan objective of nearly two million dollars. Every citizen will want to have a share in this undertaking, and every citizen will gladly do his part. Citizens should seek out the canvassers or go to their banks and see that once again northern York over-reaches its objective in the same splendid fashion.

MUNICIPAL DOCTOR

The Hon. George Hoadley (one-time minister of health in Alberta, who was responsible for the development of the municipal doctor plan in that province) will speak at Snowball on Friday evening. His subject is of course the "Municipal Doctor." The municipal doctor is employed by the municipality and serves without fee all residents according to their needs. It is a plan for a rural municipality. There is just as much need for a similar service for urban municipalities, but a more elaborate plan is necessary.

A full-dress plan of "state medicine" would be necessary. Indeed, even in rural municipalities it would be better if the plan were financed through the national treasury, for the public health is not rightfully a charge on real estate but a responsibility of the nation. "A nation's health is a nation's wealth." This is true at any time, but it is obviously true in war-time, and army medical examinations emphasize that a nation's disease is a nation's poverty.

The Temperanceville reporter of the Farm Forums in that district wrote us last week: "Hon. J. T. Thorson recently stated that of the men examined for military service up to October 1941 only 50 percent were placed in category A. According to figures compiled before the war, we have a shortage of 4,769 doctors and 6,323 dentists. Rural districts are less well served by health services than urban districts and in many rural areas they have no resident doctor. Conditions are worse since the war began. Of 2,614 Oxford county school children examined in 1940, 933 had over 1,100 defects."

The idea of full and adequate medical advice and services for everybody regardless of ability to pay will be, we venture to say, taken for granted 25 years hence. Rural municipalities can move more quickly in this reform than urban municipalities. All municipalities can make a beginning with the employment of public health nurses.

SCHOOL BOARD VACANCY

Newmarket's public school trustees will fill a vacancy on the board shortly. Probably the board members would appreciate any suggestions that citizens might care to offer. Members of the board are: W. H. Eves, chairman, Frank Bothwell, Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards, R. L. Pritchard and L. B. Rose. The board should be as representative as possible and we would therefore suggest that the new appointee should have children attending public school and, we put this suggestion in second place, if possible a woman (in other words, a mother). The retiring trustee, Dr. Edwards, expressed the opinion that the board should be made up of three men and three women.

THE YEAS AND NAYS

The addresses of the Hon. J. L. Hsieh and the Hon. J. L. Ralston support the belief that the voluntary system of enlistment is providing a highly creditable number of Canadian airmen, sailors and soldiers for the armies of the United Nations.

The case of those who attack the voluntary system is weakened by their failure to state how many combatants they think Canada should provide and how many men Canada should keep in her factories and on her farms.

The best part of the compulsory selective service proposal is the allocation of men to the jobs they are best fitted for, but it is that part of the plan which is least likely to be adopted.

Mr. Hsieh and Mr. Ralston put different interpretations on the meaning of the plebiscite, but it is evident that if Mr. Hsieh thinks that a "Yes" vote means a vote for conscription and says that voluntary enlistment is a success many who listen to him will vote "No."

Canada is providing her full share of combatants. We haven't figures for China, but India, with a population of 320,000,000, that is, about 30 times Canada's, has an army of a million men, something more than twice Canada's, and is limited to a million men by lack of equipment. Canadians, it is evident from the voluntary enlistments, are anxious to do their share of the fighting, but it is to be remembered that Canadians in Canadian factories can produce armaments which Russians and Chinese (and Indians soon too perhaps) sorely need and will gladly use to drive the invaders out of their territories. The question is where can Canadians now at work in Canadian factories best be used? What number of men can Canada still spare and not impair her industrial war effort, or what her industrial war effort could be, magnificent as it may be now?

CHURCHILL THE HYPNOTIST

"Have we not been hypnotized by Mr. Churchill's personality?" and similar criticism from the London press, following the daring escape of three German warships from Brest through the English channel to home waters, strikes us as ill-considered and unkind. The London press has not made an outstanding job of its critical function since the day when it replaced Chamberlain with Churchill.

Calmer observers on this side of the water have made it clear that Churchill was never as perfect as these London newspapers pictured him and that he is not as imperfect as they now petulantly declare. Had they calmly assessed Mr. Churchill's abilities and judged his actions from the beginning they would not have portrayed him as a superman. Moderate criticism from the beginning would have helped Mr. Churchill avoid errors and would have averted any need for extreme criticism and nasty innuendoes against a leader who has certainly been Britain's "man of the hour" and who is still Britain's chief leadership hope for some time to come. There should have been no building of false confidence in one who after all was only a human being and there should be no now no knifing of his strong leadership.

Friendly critics could have saved Mr. Churchill many pitfalls, and they could make him a greater man and a greater place in history. They could argue him out of his reiterated contention that the present is no time to consider the world's future, and they could help him to see the promise of a "four-freedom" future as an inspiration to his fellows and a bribe to our foes. They could help him to a greater success in the making of the peace, and a more honored retirement, than had world war No. I's British man of the hour, Lloyd George.

Mr. Churchill needs criticism, but not sudden, devastating criticism when things go wrong.

THE NUTHATCHES DISTURB A SLEEPER

BY RUTH DINGMAN HEBB

"This looks like a nice large hemlock tree to stop in for a few minutes," Hattie Nuthatch said to her mate, Nutty. "Perhaps if we stay here and eat for a little while some of our Chickadee friends will come along. They said they were going to come over this way after a while."

"All right, we might as well stay here, then, as there doesn't seem to be anyone else in the tree," agreed Nutty. "I think I'll start at the top and work down. You might start at the bottom and come up."

Hattie started happily up the tree-trunk, pausing frequently to look around her and see if any other birds were in the neighboring trees.

"You'd think there would be Waxwings or Juncos or someone else around today," she said to herself. "It's a grand day." Just then she thought she saw something move, up above her, close to the trunk of the tree, where the branches were quite thick.

"That must be Nutty coming down to meet me," she said to herself. "But the branches of this tree are so thick that I can hardly see anything above me—it's certainly a big tree."

Looking up again she saw another shadow move near the trunk. "That doesn't seem like Nutty," she said, puzzled. "I think I'll hurry right up there and see what he is doing. Perhaps he's found some other bird up there—but everything is so quiet. You'd think I would have heard some conversation if that had been the case."

At that moment Nutty arrived beside her, having flown, not from the top of the tree, but from lower down in another tree close by.

"Why, I thought you were up in . . ." Hattie started to exclaim.

"Sh-sh," interrupted Nutty. "I was up there, but you'd never in the world guess who else was there, a little farther down in the tree from where I was. Come on over into the next tree and I'll tell you. But be careful as you fly, because I don't want us to be seen."

When they were both over in the next tree Hattie whispered impatiently to the other Nuthatch.

"Who on earth is up there?" she asked. "I almost bumped right into a little Saw-whet Owl!" stated Nutty in solemn tones. "You can imagine what a start it gave me. There he was, right up against the trunk of the tree and I must have been asleep when I first saw him. Then he moved a couple of times after that, and I quickly flew over into this tree."

Monday was an unfortunate day for the northern division of the G.P.R. In the forenoon a snow drift threw the engine of a freight train off the track, causing a delay of an hour and a half in all the trains that followed.

and then went over to warn you."

"So that was who it was moving about there," gasped Hattie. "Hadden't we better get out of here?"

"Oh, I don't think there's much danger," said Nutty, attempting to calm down a bit. "I'd like you to get a peek at him. He's rather sweet-looking, really—small, dressed in shades of brown with some white on him, and he has no horns, so his head looks rather like a round ball. The funniest thing was when he heard me above him, but didn't know just where I was. He seemed to turn his head completely around looking for me, so that he was looking in quite the opposite direction, with his eyes in the back of his head. It was queer to look at."

"Oh, I see him now," announced Hattie in an excited whisper. "He is rather cute, I'll admit. But how do you know he's a Saw-whet and how do you know that he won't try to catch us?"

"He's a Saw-whet, because he couldn't be anything else, when he's as small as that—only about eight inches long," said Nutty. "And he has no horns, so he isn't a Screech Owl. The Screech Owl is a little bigger than he is and has different coloring. And about his eating habits—he's very fond of mice, and only occasionally catches a small bird. But I'm sure he's too sleepy and the light is too bright for him to rouse himself just now. We're quite safe, I think."

"Well, then, let's get closer and look at him some more," suggested Hattie. They crept up towards in their tree until they were quite close to the Owl's perch in the neighboring tree, but when Hattie looked at the spot where she had seen him a moment before there was no Owl in sight.

"Why, he's gone!" she exclaimed. "And he didn't make a sound. He can certainly disappear very easily and mysteriously. How could he possibly have vanished without our seeing him?"

"Owls are ghostly creatures," Nutty said. "They come and go very silently. Well, I guess it's safe for us to go back to that nice big tree and start our meal all over again. Come on."

"Why is that Owl called a Saw-whet Owl?" Hattie asked her mate later, when they were settled in the hemlock again.

"Because his call is supposed to sound like the sound made when whetting a saw," he replied. "It's too bad we didn't hear him give his call. And by the way, that little Owl is the smallest of the birds of prey in eastern Canada."

MAPLE HILL PASTOR WILL PREACH FAREWELL SERMON

Rev. E. A. McAsh will preach his farewell sermon at Maple Hill Baptist church this Sunday afternoon. The following Sunday he will begin his ministry at a Baptist church in Chatham, to which he has been called.

Mr. McAsh became the minister at Maple Hill four years ago this June, while still a student in Toronto Baptist Seminary. For some time he came up to the church at the weekends and returned to Toronto during the week, but for two years or more he has continued regularly on the field.

He has made many friends during these four years and the church has been blessed under his ministry. The people are sorry to have Mr. McAsh leave them, but they realize a call for service has come from another field of labor.

The Common Round

IMMENSITY

By Isabel Inglis Colville

I think we all have a certain shrinking from huge things—we fear them—they appal and awe us by their very immensity.

At night, when we look at the dark blue expanse of sky with its twinkling points of gold and know that they are NOT just points of gold—ornamentation for our pleasure—but worlds like our own travelling in their appointed paths, following an unthinkably perfect schedule, we feel an awe, as immense as its cause, of the omnipotent force behind its perfection. Oceans, mountains, prairies—though we admire and even learn to love them never lose their power to frighten us, and if we are with them too long, make us homesick for the more homely aspects of life—for the busy life of town or city—although a big city can frighten too—for intercourse with our fellowmen, and for the small things that for most of us fill up the daily round.

And I think it's the very immensity of the war in which our very lives and the lives of all those who wish to LIVE, not merely to function at the will of dictators, are involved, that makes us shrink from the realization that its octopus arms can reach out and touch us.

"You can't make me believe war will ever come near Canada," said a woman to me, recently.

"But it's getting nearer all the time," I protested.

"Nonsense," she retorted, and walked off, no doubt to say to someone, "I always gave Mrs. Colville credit for some sense, but—"

But just as we are realizing the distances involved, we are to some extent, learning the ease with which they can be spanned, and it is a poor mind and heart that will find much ease and comfort in the thought that as long as we are safe—why worry?

France thought she was safe behind her Maginot line. As long as Britain had her navy she thought she and her dominions and her colonies were safe and could be kept intact, while the United States trusted to two oceans, the British navy and her own prestige to keep her haughty and immune from involvement in war.

But now—those same defences, even where undamaged or intact, are wholly or partially useless.

I heard one pessimistic soul remark rather acidly: "When bombs drop on our east and west coasts, the shock MAY awaken the sleepers." But just as I said at first—just as the immensity of the firmament awes us and we turn to small things, so when the immensity of the war theatre appeals, we can turn to the things we CAN do, and CAN realize—the numberless ways we can help to make life easier where war has already come, to keep up our own morale which is sure to be reflected somewhere—and that is not always an easy task when disaster hovers near—to try to look ahead and build for the future, and to count no time, no effort, no money as wasted, which brings nearer the better world of tomorrow.

The services at Maple Hill are now on daylight saving time with the Sunday-school at 1:30 p.m. and church service at 2:30 p.m.

Mr. Jack Knights of Fort William paid a visit among his people here during the weekend. He had been to Ottawa and Toronto on business, and after his brief visit at Maple Hill, he returned home.

Hitler simply went round the Maginot line—what if he wrecked a few innocent countries on the way? The British navy was powerless against an air armada; and the great base at Singapore built to defy attack by sea, is useless against air and land forces creeping, swooping, diving from jungle and the air.

The colonial empires of Britain, the Netherlands and America, see the great culture that is Japan hovering and striking at vital points in their defences and the two oceans which flank Canada and the U.S.A. are infested with Hitler's, Mussolini's and Tojo's sharks and raiders.

Geography, where once peoples and places stayed put, has become a myth—every nation is on the move, whether prodded thereby by love of conquest, hate, fear or righteous indignation and patriotism.

I honestly think that in spite of all that has been written, talked and witnessed, that lack of realization of what we HAVE to fight for is holding back total production and total effort.

Because we've always HAD the right to talk, worship, vote and live within decent bounds, as we see best, those of us who run mostly to hindsight instead of foresight, think not very logically that we can go on forever just so.

These stretch-like citizens won't read, won't listen to what might bring the situation home to them and content themselves by saying—even in the face of Pearl Harbor and Singapore—"let them fight it out—why should WE worry." It's unbelievable, but I heard that remark not long ago.

I heard one pessimistic soul remark rather acidly: "When bombs drop on our east and west coasts, the shock MAY awaken the sleepers." But just as I said at first—just as the immensity of the firmament awes us and we turn to small things, so when the immensity of the war theatre appeals, we can turn to the things we CAN do, and CAN realize—the numberless ways we can help to make life easier where war has already come, to keep up our own morale which is sure to be reflected somewhere—and that is not always an easy task when disaster hovers near—to try to look ahead and build for the future, and to count no time, no effort, no money as wasted, which brings nearer the better world of tomorrow.

POLICE COURT PURCHASES 300 LBS. SUGAR, IS FINED $50

Pleading guilty in Newmarket police court on Tuesday to a charge of illegally purchasing sugar on Jan. 26, William Draper, R.R. 1, Queensville, was fined $50 and costs of $18.30, or 30 days in jail, by Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe. "It was a deliberate breach of the law," stated his worship.

The charge against Mr. Draper was that he "did unlawfully purchase or otherwise acquire a greater amount of sugar for personal or household consumption than two weeks ration of sugar for himself and each person in his household, contrary to Order No. 93 of the wartime prices and trade board."

According to Mrs. Edith Crowder, who conducts a general store at Ravenshoe, the defendant came into her place of business "sometime in the forenoon of Jan. 23," which was the day after the sugar rationing had been announced and purchased two bags of sugar, each being 100 pounds in weight. She said that at the time she had not known of the rationing, and sold him the sugar for which he paid her with a cheque. She added that at the time the defendant told her that he was purchasing 100 pounds for himself and 100 pounds for his brother Jack.

"Was there anything said about the sugar at the time, that is, if it were freely given out?" questioned Crown Attorney N. L. Mathews, K.C.

"No comment was given," replied the witness.

"Did he order any more?" "Yes, he ordered a bag of yellow sugar," replied Mrs. Crowder. She added that this bag was also 100 pounds and that he also paid for this order. She did not have the yellow sugar in stock at the time.

"He took the 200 pounds of sugar away, that's all that I know of the matter," she stated.

"The yellow sugar was subsequently cancelled?" cross-examined K. M. R. Stiver, counsel for the defence.

"Yes, on Thursday," replied Mrs. Crowder. She admitted telling Mr. Draper at the time that sugar would be a good buy.

Here the crown told the witness that he had asked her previously if anything had been said at the time of the purchase and that she had replied that nothing had been said. "Tell me what was said," he asked.

"I said that at other points sugar was selling at $7.30 and I was selling it at $7.75 and therefore it was a good buy," answered the witness.

Questioned further concerning the cancelling of the 100 pounds of sugar, Mrs. Crowder stated that the Mr. Draper came into her store on Thursday and said that he had learned of the law. She said that he had cancelled the order previous to the time the inspectors arrived.

"He asked me to cancel it when he came in because he had learned that it was unlawful," she stated.

Questioned by the crown as to the amount of sugar purchased by the defendant at her general store in Ravenshoe, Mrs. Oliver Hamilton testified that on Jan. 26 "before noon" Mr. Draper asked for 100 pounds of sugar, for which he paid her with a cheque. She said she subsequently learned that Mr. Draper had been to Mrs. Crowder's store first. She further informed his worship that she had not known of the rationing law until later in the day.

"The paper doesn't come out until about 4 o'clock," she stated.

"Mrs. Hamilton, you didn't know at the time that there was an order against purchasing sugar in large quantities?" questioned Mr. Stiver. "Certainly not," replied the witness.

"As a result of a talk with the previous witnesses, I went to Mr. Draper's home and asked him if he had made purchases at these places and he said that he had," testified Stuart J. Robertson, Toronto, special investigator of the wartime prices and trade board. He explained that Mr. Draper's home was three miles out of the village of Queensville.

"He said that he had 200 pounds at the time and I told him to get it," continued Mr. Robertson. "He went upstairs and got it."

The witness further stated that he took the sugar away in his car and then remembered that there was another 100 pounds, so went back to the defendant's home to get it. He said that Mr. Draper told him that he had paid for this 100 pounds of sugar but that it belonged to the elderly gentleman and lady with whom he was living.

"I asked him what he wanted the sugar for and he said that he was going to get married this summer," testified Mr. Robertson.

In answer to queries of the crown, the witness informed the court that there were three people in the house and that Mr. Draper was a bachelor.

Asked by Mr. Stiver if he had questioned the defendant as to the ownership of the sugar in the presence of the other residents of the house Mr. Robertson replied that he had.

"The explanation I have to offer is that Mr. Draper went up to the stores where he usually deals," Mr. Stiver told his worship. "Neither Mrs. Crowder nor Mrs. Hamilton, who are storekeepers, knew of the rationing. My client says that he did not know."

Here the crown objected that the defendant had not said that he did not know of the law, as he had not been put in the witness-box.

"I am instructed by my client to say that he did not know of the law," replied Mr. Stiver. "Your worship can believe this statement or not." He stated that if his worship wished he would put his client in the witness-box.

"I think the accused is technically guilty," he stated. "It was an order-in-council not given any publicly except in the morning papers."

"Except over the radio," commented his worship.

"It's a technical offence," stated the defence. "One of the bags belonged to the people with whom Mr. Draper was living. This he told the official in the presence of the other people."

Crown Attorney Mathews informed his worship that the department was agreeable to have Mrs. Crowder and Mrs. Hamilton take back the sugar if they wished to do so and credit Mr. Draper's account. They were agreed to do so.

"On the evidence I am quite satisfied to evade the restrictive measure," Magistrate Woodliffe told Mr. Draper. "You deliberately attempted to do your neighbors out of sugar. This restriction is very mild. There is no reason for you to do such a thing. There is no evidence that you ever acquired such quantities before. It is a deliberate breach of the law. I fine you $50 and costs or 30 days in jail."

POLICE COURT SLOT-MACHINES BRING $100 AND $50 FINES

Charged with careless driving on Yonge St. on Jan. 31, when his car was in collision with one driven by Stanley Maynard, of Camp Borden, William Duane, R. 2, Newmarket, was fined $10 and costs amounting to $7.25 or ten days, by Magistrate Woodliffe. Mr. Duane pleaded guilty to the charge.

"On Jan. 31, I arrived at the scene of an accident at 7.30 p.m.," testified Provincial Constable Alex. Ferguson. "I learned that the accident had occurred at 7 p.m. I found the car driven by William Duane and also the car driven by Stanley Maynard of Camp Borden. The Maynard car was standing on the side of the highway, part way on the shoulder, facing south."

"The Duane truck was about 150 feet north of the Maynard car on the west side of the highway," continued the officer. "From marks on the road the Duane truck had driven into the side of the Maynard car. The collision took place two feet over the centre line."

Questioned by the crown as to the weather conditions, Constable

Ferguson stated that the evening was dark and that it was snowing. "I would suggest that Mr. Duane have his eyesight tested for glasses," said the police officer.

In reply to the magistrate's inquiry as to whether the defendant appeared to have been drinking, the officer stated that at first he thought that he might have had something to drink but the only odor was of tobacco.

"I recommend that your license be suspended and that before you are allowed to drive again you have your eyesight tested," Magistrate Woodliffe told Mr. Duane.

Pleading guilty to keeping a gaming house, Harley Frizell, Schomberg, was fined $50 and costs of $12 or 30 days.

"On Jan. 23 I went to Schomberg, to the grocery store of the accused," testified Constable A. Wallace of the York county police. "I entered alone, leaving Constable Martindale in the car. I found a large slot-machine and a small one. I operated the large one."

The officer said that on operating the machine six times he obtained eight slugs, in exchange for which he received 40 cents from Mrs. Frizell at the counter.

The officer said that there was no skill whatever needed on the part of the operator and that all a person had to do was to pull down the handle.

"Do you want to see it work?" asked Constable Wallace.

"Yes," smiled his worship. "I'd like to see how it operates." The officer proceeded to demonstrate.

Constable Wallace also testified that Constable Martindale operated the machines and received money for the slugs. He said that they then made a seizure of the machines under the authority of a search warrant. They found a quantity of slugs in some boxes.

Defence counsel Harvey Rose informed his worship that it was the defendant's first offence.

"On fining you $50 and costs or 30 days," Magistrate Woodliffe told Mr. Frizell. "I order both machines confiscated and the money in them. I also say they are gaming machines within the meaning of the act."

Pleading guilty to keeping a gaming-house, Percy Hill, Nobleton, was fined $100 and costs or 30 days. According to Constable Wallace he entered the premises of the defendant at Nobleton on Jan. 23 and purchased a bottle of soda and cigarettes at the booth adjoining the service station which is operated by Mr. Hill. He said that he operated the slot-machine on the premises three times and obtained money from the machine. No skill was needed to win on the machine.

"I declare the machine to be a gaming machine and order it confiscated and the money therein confiscated to the crown," stated Magistrate Woodliffe.

Found guilty of conducting an illegal contrivance, Norman Hilson, Milton Heights, Ontario, was fined $10 and costs or ten days. A similar charge against Ivan Rouse, Burlington, was withdrawn with the consent of the crown.

Also found guilty of conducting an illegal contrivance, Cliff Davey, Toronto, was fined $60 and costs or 30 days.

"These machines represent a great loss and cannot be easily replaced," stated Mr. Rouse. "I should hope they wouldn't be," commented Magistrate Woodliffe.

For failing to have 1912 license plates on their cars, Edward G. Clark, Oshawa, and Thomas Brown, Toronto, were each fined $5 and costs.

WINNERS GET TOP-FLIGHT SCREEN FARE, "HONKY-TONK" OR "ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN"

Fifty-six puzzlers sent in correct answers on time for last week's classified ad contest. The correct answers were: bright, orders, concession, rabbits, automobile, farmers, ribbons, tractor, breakfast and immediately.

Five winners were drawn by Mrs. W. S. Perrin, Main St. florist shop proprietress, as follows: Ruth Pegg, R. R. 1, Sutton, Mrs. Leslie McKnight, R. R. 3, Newmarket, Miss Irene McNicol, R. R. 3, Newmarket, Mrs. Joe Peat, Newmarket, and Murray Tansley, Sharon. They will double passes for the Strand for next week and may attend either next Tuesday to see George Formby in "On the Beat" and Al Johnson and Eddie Cantor in "Minstrel Days," or next Thursday to see Charles Boyer and Margaret Sullivan in "Appointment for Love," and Freddie Bartholomew in "Cadeaux on Parade." Passes may be picked up any evening at the theatre.

THIS WEEK'S CONTEST

A treat is in store for winners of this week's contest. Five lucky puzzlers will get double passes to the Strand to see the popular new picture, "Honky-Tonk," starring Clark Gable and Lana Turner, on Wednesday, March 4, or to see the outstanding film, "One Foot in Heaven," starring Fredric March and Martha Scott, on Friday, March 6. (Please note the change from the usual nights.) Answers will not be counted unless they reach The Era by Tuesday morning at 3.30.

Last week all the o's and all the a's were left out of the scrambled words. This week all the e's and all the a's are left out. All the words appear in the classified ads. Here are the ten words: MINLTON, BLOGBER, ROIR, IYLTUOCIN, CLRP, TUIR, LIRTC, PQDUIP, SROL, FLIRT, RCYLDIT.

W.I. DECIDES AGAINST WOMEN ON JURIES

An interesting attraction at the February meeting of Elgin Grove Women's Institute was an open debate on "Should women sit on the Canadian jury?" There were some splendid arguments both for and against it, but when a vote was taken the majority were against women on juries.

The meeting was held at Mrs. Buckley's home in Sutton West on Wednesday of last week. Due to road conditions and illness, there were only 17 ladies present.

Legislation was the topic for the day and the convenors were Mrs. A. Smallwood and Mrs. Harris, who put on a very interesting and educational program. Mrs. Percy Brown sang a solo, "Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight?"

The lucky number ticket was drawn by Mrs. Neilson for a rooster donated by Mrs. H. Cronberry. The winner was Marlene Munro. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

ATTENDS TEMPERANCE FEDERATION MEETING

Rev. W. A. Westcott was in attendance at the North York Temperance Federation meeting at Newmarket on Friday.

Over 300 Pay Tribute To Whitchurch's 'Earl of York'

Over 300 ratepayers of Whitchurch township, county officials and citizens from all walks of life gathered to honor Warden Earl Toole of York county, reeve of Whitchurch, at a banquet held in Mechanics' Hall last evening.

Seated at the head table were ex-Warden Seneca Baker, Reeve W. A. Armstrong of Etobicoke, Reeve Fred Lundy of Newmarket, Morgan Baker, M.L.A., County Commissioners Boynton Weldrick and James Rennie, Mayor Frank Underhill of Aurora, Prof. J. C. Steckley of Ridgeway, Deputy-Reeve George Leary and Councilor Eugene Baker of Whitchurch and Mr. and Mrs. Toole. George D. Y. Leacock acted as toastmaster. Nine former York wardens were present.

First reeve of Whitchurch to be honored as warden of York was the late Joseph Hartman in 1876. In 1907, Seneca Baker was similarly honored and he is today in his 95th year, the oldest living ex-warden. Mr. Toole is the third reeve of the township to become warden.

Entertainment was provided by Mrs. James Oldham, Stouffville, Rex Slocombe, Toronto magician, Mrs. Lambert Wilson of Aurora, Miss Helen Evans of Whitchurch, elocutionist, and Roy Harper's four-piece orchestra.

At least to the county was proposed by York county's agricultural representative, W. M. Cockburn, of Newmarket.

"We have a real farmer government in the county now, for the warden and his commissioners are all old farmers," said Mr. Cockburn. "I am confident York county will reach another high in the present Victory loan campaign."

Remarks were made by Reeve Armstrong and Reeve Lundy. "He was plain Earl of Bogart-town when I first knew him, now he is Earl of York," declared Prof. J. C. Steckley of Ridgeway, former York county agricultural representative, who proposed the toast to Mr. Toole. "There are a lot of people today who would be better off doing their bit than trying to tell other people what to do. Farmers have a big program on their hands today, but you can depend on it they will come through," he declared. "We are asked to supply 600 million pounds of bacon. That is more to be supplied for overseas in one year than we supplied during four years of the Great War. One hundred and twelve million pounds of cheese were asked for last year and we reached our objective by October. Egg production is at its highest peak. We cannot let down, despite the shortage of farm labor."

Mr. Toole got his first start in public life as president of a junior farmers' club," he said. "Honesty, loyalty and courage," he termed as the three principles of leadership. "Mr. Toole has all three and is not afraid to stand on his own feet."

Moved by the wave of applause which greeted him, Mr. Toole thanked his "friends and neighbors." He owed his achievements to their loyalty and confidence, he said.

Deputy-Reeve George Leary read an address signed on behalf of the ratepayers and Councilor Eugene Baker presented the warden with a silver tea service. The pattern matched the traditional silver tray that is annually presented to the retiring warden of York by his council colleagues.

Aurora St. Andrew's Presbyterian church ladies capably catered for the turkey dinner.

Clerk John Crawford headed the committee in charge of arrangements.

IT'S AN EGG

A pullet on the farm of Robt. Johnson, Queensville, is doing its bit for the war effort by laying triple-yoked eggs. Mr. Johnson sent the egg in to The Era office. It weighed 6 1/2 ounces and had a circumference of 9 1/2 inches by 7 1/2 inches.

TAKES POSITION IN AURORA

Miss Jean White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert White, Armistage, has accepted a position with the Aurora clinic. She replaces Miss Hamilton, who has been appointed assistant superintendent at York county hospital, Newmarket.

MARKHAM WINS
4TH GAME 8-6

With lady luck turning her back on the local hockey cause, plus some of the roughest tactics seen in junior hockey in some years, Markham defeated the current junior semi-finals with an 8-6 win on Monday to send the series into the fifth game.

At game time, despite icy roads and fog, Aurora were ready to start, but Markham used every means at their disposal to postpone the game. Their players dressed slowly. Then it was discovered that their sweaters were missing. Finally referee Gorman Large ordered the game to start. Then they discovered that Markham intermediate sweaters were available, causing another delay. The reason for all this was that Harman Collins, their new goalie, was playing for Defiance at Varsity arena and would not be able to make Unionville until the game ordinarily would have been held over.

Finally the game started and about five minutes later Collins arrived. Markham drew first blood, Junkin scoring from North-side. Aurora evened it at the 12-minute mark. Four minutes later Macneils gave Aurora the lead. Then came the big blow. Doug McLeod, Markham reserve defenceman, deliberately cross-checked Mervyn Broughton in the corner, seriously injuring him. Aurora star around the right eye and knocking him dizzy. Broughton was carried off and received medical attention, but was so badly cut and shaken-up that he was unable to play the rest of the game, thereby breaking up the Aurora line and forcing Coach Rowntree to juggle his line-up, which proved fatal. McLeod escaped without a penalty.

Markham, although they knew the rules, now tried to insert Collins into the game, but were unable to do so until the second period.

Capra and Stark put Aurora one up in the second period by successive goals and then Rowe picked up a loose puck that escaped Hamilton and tied the score. Nick Hargney scored again at 18 minutes.

For ten minutes of the last period Aurora did everything but score and Markham were lucky to hold on. The puck hit the post once and Capra and Macneils both missed ordinarily sure goals. Harold Capra drew a penalty for tripping and with it went the game. For Junkin scored just as Hargney stepped back on the ice. Stark scored again with only two minutes to go.

It is fair to say that the loss of Broughton spelled the difference in the score. Commercial-style refereeing is not suitable for junior hockey and too much rough game and the local club are confident this will be carried out.

Aurora: goal, Hamilton; defence, Turnbull and Macneils; centre, Nish; wings, Stephens and Stark; subs, Thompson, Turnbull, Doumont, Capra, Broughton and Hughes.

Markham: goal, Collins and Bondway; defence, Bangay and Sabiston; centre, Rowe; wings, Watson and Weatherill; subs, Calhoun, Junkin, McLeod, Hayes.

MEET MARKHAM TONIGHT

Following conference with O.H.A. Secretary W. A. Hewitt on Tuesday morning, officials of the Aurora Junior hockey club announced the fifth and final game of the local junior C semi-finals will be played in Aurora this evening at 8.30 p.m.

Disciplinary action against late starting by Markham has been promised by the O.H.A. Dr. C. J. Devins has ordered the local club not to dress Mervyn Broughton, star centre of the juniors, for tonight's clash with Markham.

ALFRED LOVE MARKS
95TH BIRTHDAY

Birthday greetings are being extended to Alfred Love, who celebrated his 95th birthday on Tuesday.

Present with him for the occasion were his two daughters, Miss Lora Love of Aurora and Mrs. F. D. Thornloe of Lansing. Many visitors want to pay their respects to one of Ontario's oldest public officials and Aurora's third oldest resident.

For 26 years he has been secretary-treasurer of the Aurora high school and public school boards and he still signs all cheques and vouchers. Since the 90's he has been secretary-treasurer of the Aurora Cemetery Board and was re-elected by his fellow directors on Wednesday of last week.

Armored Platoon From Borden Visits Town

A light armored platoon from the reconnaissance headquarters at Camp Borden appeared in Aurora on Tuesday as part of the local Victory loan campaign.

In command of the unit was Lieut. William King, son of Mrs. W. C. King, Yonge St. Five other officers were in the party and Lieut. King and his mother entertained at luncheon for them.

The men of the unit invaded the basement of the King residence and enjoyed their non-day meal there, plus some additions supplied by Mrs. King.

Civilian Defence Man
Urges More Firemen

A. H. Huen of Toronto, assistant secretary for civilian defence for Ontario, addressed a meeting of the Aurora Civilian Defence committee and interested citizens in the council chambers on Thursday evening.

Mayor Frank Underhill presided, welcomed Mr. Huen and introduced the heads of the Aurora organization.

Mr. Huen told the gathering that Aurora was regarded as in "a dangerous area" but that local citizens should be prepared in case of emergency.

"Our big cities may be targets of the enemy before the war is over and the lessons you learn here you may be able to apply elsewhere if necessary," he said. Fire, medical and police work are the hardest to co-ordinate.

"The more men you can train in the fire brigade the better," he declared. For women he suggested a course in St. John's ambulance work and more home nursing classes.

"Your talk couldn't have come at a more appropriate time than this," said the Victory loan is to start," said the mayor. "It makes us realize we have something to protect. The training in defence work is a good education for everyone and the knowledge can be made use of in peacetime."

"We'll try to have our results make your trip worthwhile," said Councillor Dr. G. A. C. Guntion, chairman of the committee. "It looks as if we've got all the practice we need without blackouts."

PRESENT $100 CHEQUE

The Aurora fire brigade made another fine gesture this week when they presented the Aurora Red Cross with a $100 cheque.

Fire Chief Harry Jones made the presentation to Councillor Ross Linton, chairman of the Red Cross finance committee.

SCOUT COMMITTEE MEETS

The group committee of the Aurora Boy Scouts met on Tuesday evening at the home of Gordon French.

CALENDAR

Aurora United church will be the scene of an important boys' work conference for the North York district on Thursday evening.

Boys from 11 to 17 will gather to discuss youth problems. Rev. Wilbur Howard, secretary of the Ontario boys' work board, will be the guest speaker, while Francis Cook of Aurora, North York's member of the boys' parliament, will also speak.

DOWN THE CENTRE

Sutton Greenshirts helped themselves to a slice of play-off cake by virtue of a brilliant 7-6 win over Midland, last year's intermediate champions, right in the Georgian Bay summer paradise. On Monday night of this week they play in Collingwood and a win or a tie will put them in first place so far as the intermediate section of the group is concerned. A glance at the hockey scoreboard will tell you the verdict. In case that happens Midland and Gravenhurst will play a sudden-death game, the winner to meet Sutton. If Sutton loses the three teams will be tied with nine points each and a round-robin series to eliminate one team will be played.

Syd Shephard led the Sutton cause, getting three tallies. Joint McCormick had two and Harvey Gibney and Jack Culverwell got one apiece. Sutton got the winning goal in the last three minutes of play.

"Ginger" Hall made his debut in the Greenshirts' net and played a smart game. Both Bob Peters and Mickey Smith have done a good job to-date but Hall is more experienced. Hall will be especially remembered by Newmarket fans as the goaltender who almost kept Newmarket juniors from their title cruise back in 1933 when he guarded the nets for National Sea Flea juniors and had such boys as Jimmy Fowler and George Parsons as teammates.

We venture to say no one who saw the deciding game in Maple Leaf Gardens will forget the work of the redhead and how with the score tied, and the game apparently headed for overtime, a shot hit the screen behind Nationals' net, bounced on the top of the net and after juggling their uncertainty rolled down behind Hall into the net for a 3-2 win. It was Don Wilson who fired the shot, we think, but we are not sure, but the important thing is Newmarket won and the fans still talk about that one. Hall subsequently suited for Sea Flea seniors, and for years has been a star in commercial hockey. He guarded the nets in lacrosse for Orillia Terriers too. The Western boy is plenty good and one thing is sure, Sutton are better stocked, so far as the nets are concerned, than for many years. The O.H.A. gave Sutton permission to sign him, which seems a bit strange, to even mention it, considering where all the players or at least most of them reside.

Elmira intermediates were the subject of an odd ruling this week, of which their club shouldn't be proud. As you know, when a club loses a player because he goes on active service a new man is a military replacement. Elmira has a player who has been called up for service, who chose to go north as a "conscientious objector," the first to be recorded on paper so far as Ontario hockey players are concerned. His club was awarded a replacement, however.

Pat Patton, the former Richmond Hill goalie, who is with the dental corps at Kincardine, is playing goal for Lucknow in the northern league and doing a good job too.

Carl "Shorty" Turan, the little giant of North York sports for many years, has joined the ordinance corps and is now stationed in Toronto. "Shorty," whose correct age we don't know, played hockey, lacrosse and baseball for Newmarket, Aurora and Bradford teams for years and was a capable performer at all three. He was the storm centre of more arguments and fights in all three sports than any other district athlete we remember. He was versatile too and could play any place despite his size. He didn't back-up under fire and seldom got the worst of any encounter. He was a great kiddier and had the ability of getting other people's goat, which had startling effects at times and only nettled him about an even edge. His last sporting appearance was in the Newmarket town league last year and while not as good as when he played for the late Cliff Case's Blue Ribbons he was the best catcher in the whole loop.

Bradford just about lost its rink last week when fire broke out in the men's dressing-room on Sunday and spread rapidly, damaging the north-east section before being brought under control. Fortunately, the fire was discovered before it was too late and smart work by the Bradford volunteer brigade did the rest.

Jack Brockbank, the former Richmond Hill puck-chaser and an out-fighter on the championship Roses softball team, is in the army now and overseas too we understand.

Bud Gilley of Sutton Greenshirts of last year is another lad who is across the pond. He is with the R.C.O.C.

Len Sykes, starry winger for Gravenhurst, will not be available for his team for the rest of the season. Sykes collided at the boards recently with big Ellis Pringle of Sutton and a subsequent examination revealed a broken collar-bone.

Chick Webster will apparently stay with the Newmarket camp and hockey team, for St. Catharines have asked for and received player Johnny Thompson of Toronto as a military replacement.

After playing six games, all won by Markham in decisive fashion, the camp and the green and white clad Markham team meet in a play-off series. Seems a bit needless at that.

Harman Collins, goal-tender for DeHavilland aircraft, appeared in goal for Markham juniors in the second game of the play-offs and was successful in guarding the nets so that his team won. He didn't look a bit better than did Allen Roadway in the first and third affairs but his mates seemed to give him better protection. Roadway has been used rather crudely, we think, by Markham and deserves all kinds of credit for filling in when the others couldn't appear.

Collins' halo from Penetang and played for Bill Hancock four years ago when the local juniors and the northern boys tangled in the northern S.P.A. series.

Elizabeth Snively, whose skiing triumphs we mentioned last week, has been further honored by being elected to the eastern Canada ski team which will compete at Lake Placid.

Ross Waddell received a nasty gash over the eye in Saturday's game against Marlborough in Oshawa but our advice from a resident of the Motor City is that it isn't serious. Dick Schad went into the nets and during his third period stay the winning goals were scored by the Dukes. Schad, of course, has had very little work and is playing bush league hockey on the side at Agincourt.

A fifth game is necessary as a result of Monday night's hectic encounter at Markham. Markham, following the game on Monday, practically refused to play the final game at Aurora, claiming neutral ice should be agreed upon. To the Markham officials, who like their bread buttered on both sides in copious quantities, that would only mean Uxbridge rink.

The Aurora club are definitely insisting the game be played here and if the agreement reached at the group meeting is lived up to that is what will happen. Apparently Ab. Nighswander and John Bayes, who represented Markham at the group meeting, are no longer with the club or their pledged word is a thing of the wind. The matter will be placed before Secretary Bill Hewitt of the O.H.A. and Group Convenor Murray Scutten, and Aurora will insist on their rights.

Friday night is the date the Aurora club is aiming for but Markham this is said to be unsuitable. They have arranged a charity game for the Schoutens, victims of the recent fire tragedy. Their object is a worthy one but the point is that a club in the play-offs has no business to arrange games without consulting all concerned. The clash is to be between the two Markham teams and is purely exhibition. With charity as the sole object any other team as an opponent would draw just as well as the General Juniors. We shall see what we shall see but whatever confusion may result no one but Markham is to blame.

Doug McLeod, who played a rugged game against Aurora when he was with Kingsway, gave Mervyn Broughton the well-known words on Monday evening. "I am not a referee," Garney Large wasn't on top of the play. We weren't a few feet away, and we would take plenty of argument to convince us the matter was accidental. Broughton may be able to play in the series and again he may not. He has been a stand-out for Aurora on both offence and defence the past few weeks and has been marked down for some undesired attention from the opposition. Oakville mowed him down and just about won the game over it too.

Pat Patterson, who all season has refereed pretty fair hockey in the group, last Friday drew Markham's ire largely because they lost and the actions of some of their players might well have merited some drastic action. The General refused to play with him in charge on Monday.

Garney Large was named by the O.H.A. and we do not say he was unfair. We do say the mercantile style of hockey, which goes in for plenty of fireworks, is not the type of hockey teen-age boys should be asked to play. Markham are adept at every trick of the trade and don't hesitate to use it. Good clean hockey sports the style of play. We will submit this question to any fair-minded person. Have you ever seen a team coached by Charlie Rowntree deliberately play rough? You know the answer to that one. Our boys can take it and hand it out if need be but they are taught to realize that staying on the ice is the best way to win games. There are no softies or angels but they have come to depend on good impartial officiating and they have a right to expect it too.

Late starting has been the Markham motto all year. It's true on occasions the roads have been bad and players on war work may have to contend with, too, but they have yet to be late for a single engagement and in all four games Markham has purposely stalled for one reason or another. Twice it was to get Collins to the game in time to start. They worked that sweater ruse last year on Parry Sound and it's cunning but hard to see them get away with it.

Allen Roadway, the deaf and dumb lad, has been really pushed around by his team all season. No wonder if he isn't the best in the league. He has been given a chance. Some day they'll cry wolf once too often.

Bob Bangay, the Markham coach, with years of experience behind him, tried to infringe the rules on Monday by subbing Collins for Roadway when Broughton was hurt. It didn't work. When asked if he didn't know the rules Bangay simply said, "Sure, but if you can get away with it, why not?"

Win or lose, we are satisfied that this year's Aurora club is one of the best in C. hockey and a fine collection of boys. Given an even break they will hold their own and ask no quarter. We look for a near record crowd when the two clubs clash again. If the fans won't take the one in they would n't walk around the corner to see Champ Churchill in a rough and tumble with Hurricane Miller.

Myles McInnis, we think, is the most improved player in the club in the play-offs and is right up with the leading scorers too.

Ken Nash, diminutive centre, is another lad who is catching the eyes of the fans. He hasn't much weight but he is a regular hornet around the nets. Bolton are surprising everyone by their stand against Elmira and may just put the quietus on Hackett's Braves. On their own ice they are plenty potent, as witness that 8-2 win last week.

King City have been raised to the status of an A club in the O.H.A. and will go into the play-offs as the Bolton group winner in that section. The other three outfits are charged as B and are now battling it out in a play-off series, with Richmond favored to win out.

Remember Pearl Harbour may be a theme song in the homes of our American cousins these days but to the Aurora junior hockeyists and their following, "Remember Meave, Broughton," will be the slogan carried into the next game.

MOVIES

The picture, "Forty Thousand Horses," was entirely filmed in Australia, near Sydney. The story is of courageous men, gallant horses, and that fine comradeship bond of soldiers. A charming love story winds through the film.

The central figures are three troupers of the light horse. Grant Taylor as "Red" Gallagher, "Chips" as Larry, and Pat Twissell as Lanny. As in present day warfare, they share everything. "Red" is the romantic hero, who with Betty Bryant, supplies the love interest.

On the same program Laurel and Hardy in "Oliver Twist," a short featurette, provides a well-balanced weekend bill at the Strand theatre.

Flingers must see George Formby in "On The Beat" next Monday or Tuesday at the Strand. It promises to be the best yet, with many new song hits as only Formby can sing them.

This time he portrays a war reserve policeman who cherishes an ambition to become a member of the flying squad. Attempts to sabotage the building of a new warship provide the dramatic theme for this hilarious comedy. The highlights are his training for the flying squad, in which he demonstrates his well-known prowess on the motor-cycle, his antics when he attempts to avoid both the police and the crooks he hopes to capture, and a grand climax in which he competes in a car race, driving a wretched car and finishing up in a fairground "Wall of Death."

On the same program is "Minstrel Days," starring Al Jolson and Eddie Cantor.

A gay, streamlined comedy-romance, "Appointment For Love," with Charles Boyer and Margaret Sullivan as its brilliant co-stars, comes to the Strand on Wednesday and Thursday.

Boyer portrays a successful Broadway playwright, a genius at penning the romantic adventures of his fictitious characters. He bows down completely when his own affairs of the heart develop complications.

Miss Sullivan is cast as a feminine careerist—a doctor—who makes a domestic fixture of Boyer after he has staged an impetuous romantic pursuit and carried her to the altar.

As an added feature, "Cadets on Parade" stars Freddie Bartholomew.

Vandorf

Wesley Young People held a Valentine party in the church basement on Wednesday evening, with a large crowd in attendance. The committee in charge had prepared an interesting program. Before the evening was over ice-cream and cake were served.

Miss Mildred Anglin of Toronto spent last week with her grandmother, Mrs. E. A. Cale.

Master Robert Anglin, who is not attending high school this term, has returned to his home in Toronto after spending six weeks with Mrs. Cale.

Miss Ruth Clark spent Sunday with Miss Ethel McDonald.

Miss Elsie VanNosttrand, nurse-in-training at the Toronto East General Hospital, spent Saturday at the home of her parents.

Miss Elsie Plowright of Newmarket and Mr. Elmer Pratt of Barrie were weekend guests of Miss Mabel Carr.

A community drive is being held in aid of the British Bomb Victims' Fund and an entertainment will be held in Vandorf hall next Wednesday evening.

A number of Wesley young people attended a blackout service as the guests of Queensville Young People's Union on Sunday evening. The service was a new adventure for the young people, but was enjoyed by all. They were glad that the noise of bombs dropping in the distance was only imaginary, but it made them realize what some people are going through these days.

Miss Jean White has accepted a position as assistant in the Aurora clinic.

Miss Dorothy Carr, who has been seriously ill in York county hospital for the past month, was able to return to her home on Saturday.

Sunday guests at the Switzer home were Mrs. A. Boddy and son, Gordon, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stoloe and Ruth, all of Toronto.

Kettleby

Mr. and Mrs. R. Marshall and Rena, and Mr. J. McDonald, motored to Milton on Sunday.

PLEASANTVILLE

Pupils Will Give Victory Loan Concert

Trooper Orley McClure, who is in England, in a recent letter to his mother, Mrs. Gordon McClure, sent the following message:

"To Folks at Home: Just a short word or two to thank the people of Bogartown community for the parcel which I was very grateful to receive. I always find it very hard to put words into writing when it comes to thanking people for kindness. I hope everyone in the community has a very prosperous New Year and the best of good luck. Hoping to be back with you when this is over."

The Pine Orchard Institute meeting will be held on Feb. 25 at the home of Mrs. L. J. Harper. The convenor will be Mrs. Ridley, Sr., and the topic on health will be given by Dr. Henderson of Aurora. The roll-call will be answered by an everyday health hint and music will be provided by Miss Frances Stokwood.

Miss Dora McClure of Toronto spent the weekend at her home. Mr. Arthur Starr of Pickering spent several days last week with his aunt and grandmother, Mrs. E. Hawlin and Mrs. M. F. Starr.

Mrs. Alvin Ridley left on Sunday for Galt to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Green, and family.

The community club is having a pot-luck supper at Bogartown school on Friday evening and the school children are putting on the program for the Victory loan campaign. The silver collection will go toward overseas boxes for boys from the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Forbes of Toronto spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Toole.

SECOND VICTORY LOAN

● This is no time for waste or extravagance, be it of effort, materials or money. This is wartime, a time for economy. And there is no substitute for economy.

Money is needed for war purposes and money must be found. It cannot be spent in the normal channels and in the war effort, too. It is a time for sacrifice, for economizing, for saving.

Save... save all you can, and put your dollars to work. Buy Victory Bonds and pay for them out of savings as you go along.

Note—If you need a safe place to keep Victory Bonds and other valuable papers, remember that Imperial Bank's Safety Deposit Boxes share the security of the Bank's own vaults. Rentals from $3 per annum. At all branches.

ROCHE'S POINT
W. I. Honors Memory Of Late Fellow Member

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held in Christ church parish hall on Tuesday afternoon of last week,
when members were present
from the branches of Elmhurst and Lakeside. The meeting was in the charge of Mrs. E. J. Bunn, the president of the branch. At the close of the business a minute of silence was observed by all present in remembrance of the late treasurer, Mrs. A. H.
Walinek.

The visitors then took charge of the meeting and provided the program, including piano solos by Miss E. King, a paper on "Health Hints and Treatment of Colds," by Miss E. Morton, an article on "Law Provisions for Women," by Mrs. J. Clark, selections by a quartet composed of Mesdames King, Morton, Vaughan and White. Mrs. Anderson made a few interesting comments on "Canadianization." Contests, music and refreshments, and the singing of the national anthem, brought a most successful gathering to a close.

A very enjoyable miscellaneous shower was held in Christ church parish hall on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Muriel Sutcliffe, when the bride-to-be
was the recipient of many useful gifts.

Mrs. F. S. Fenning is ill at the Toronto General hospital.

The women's day of prayer will be held in Christ church on Friday evening. The service will commence at 8 o'clock.

Keswick

On Thursday morning, 30 or more women gathered to quilt for the Keswick United church W.
M. S. supply bale. A very delicious pot-luck dinner was enjoyed, and six quilts were made under the supervision of Mrs. J.
Baines, convener of supplies, and her committee, Mrs. Cecil Grant and Mrs. Geo. Hamilton.

During the afternoon the president, Mrs. W. E. Morton, led a brief but worthwhile worship service and conducted important business. Mrs. Morton was assisted by Mrs. Frank Marritt, and by Miss Joy Marritt, who sang a solo appropriate for the times.

Mrs. Morton referred to the missionaries who are still in the foreign field and asked that they be included in a special way,
along with China, in the prayers

several weeks in Peterboro with her son and family.

Mrs. Wm. Campbell of Mount Albert spent a couple of days with her friend, Mrs. Harman, recently.

Mrs. Harman entertained several of her friends at dinner on Saturday evening.

Lloyd Profit had an accident
while going to his work at Pickering near Malvern. He escaped injury himself although his car was damaged.

Stanley Lamey has recovered from his illness. He spent the weekend at his home here, returning to camp on Sunday evening.

The women's world day of prayer will be held in the United Sunday-school on Friday afternoon.

Mr. James Cockburn of Sutton, well-known to many of the residents of Zephyr, died suddenly on Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Rynard attended the funeral of Mr. R. Nighswander near Stonyville on Sunday.
Mrs. Nighswander is her cousin.

Advertising creates business.

prayer and it was amazing the number of things those Canadian children felt that they should thank God for.

In the future, meetings will be held on Friday, the next one being on Friday, Feb. 27, after school.

The following are the officers for 1942: superintendent, Helen Smith; assistant superintendent,
Bessie Henry; president,
Phyllis Rye; vice-pres., Isabel
Walker; secretary, Marie Draper;
treasurer, Ruth Mary Winch;
roll-call, Marlene Rye; World
Friends' secretary, Grace Peters.

In co-operation with the women of the world the Women's Missionary Societies of Keswick
United and Christian churches will hold their service of the world's day of prayer on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the United church. Mrs. Orley Hayes and Miss Ella Morton will sing during the service.

At the evening service in the United church next Sunday the congregations will see "Through Home Mission Windows," a beautifully colored set of new lantern slides depicting the home mission work of the United church in Canada in the north and west and along the two sea coasts.

The United church school will hold a sleighing party for the beginners, primary and junior departments on Saturday, the party to begin at 3 p.m.

A treat is in store for Keswick community on the evening of March 19 when, under the sponsorship of the United church choir, Westminster Central United church choir of Toronto will present a concert of operatic selections, solos, Easter and Lenten music.

On Sunday evening a number of the Canadian Girls in Training and of the intermediate boys took part in the service at the United church. The theme was that of the world day of prayer services. Lorne Mainprize was soloist and a girls' quartette composed of Marjorie Peters, Florence Walker, Betty Main-prize and Winona Perry also sang. Geraldine Gable conducted the service, while Marian Smith and Donald Winch read the prayers and Ruth Thompson and George Weller the lessons.

Mrs. Russell J. Stork, leader of the C.G.I.T., told the story.

Other boys and girls, under the leadership of Rev. Gordon Lapp, contributed speaking parts and Bible quotations. A good congregation was in attendance.

Walter Walker sang a solo entitled "Garden of Prayer" in a very fine and inspiring manner at the morning service of the United church on Sunday.

Many favorable comments have been heard regarding the new curtains of "church brown"
which the Women's Association has hung in the east windows of the United church.

Mr. William Marritt, Mr. William Holborn and Rev. Gordon Lapp were present at the session of Toronto centre presbytery on Tuesday.

Mrs. Sidney Edmondson of Eldersley, Sask., who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs.
Perry Morton, has returned to Hamilton where her husband is stationed with the army. She will spend some time in Hamilton before returning west.

Funeral services for the late William John Dyer, who died suddenly on Saturday, were conducted on Monday in the Strasler funeral chapel. Rev. Gordon Lapp officiated. Interment was in Queensville cemetery.

Keswick public school will present "Builders of Canada" and

"The Heart" by the senior room and "Blue Boats" and "A Radio Play" by the junior room on Monday and Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

A Victory Loan speaker will address the gathering during the intermission. Proceeds will be given to the British War Victims' Fund.

Miss Lois Leonard and Mr.

Danger! Liver
Trouble is Serious

Are you nervous and irritable—can't sleep or eat—tired out all the time? If you're like that, a faulty liver is poisoning your whole system! Lasting ill-health may be the cost!

● Your liver is the largest organ in your body and most important to your health. It supplies energy to muscles, tissues and glands. If unhealthy, your body lacks this energy and becomes enfeebled—youthful vim disappears.
Again your liver pours out bile to digest food,
get rid of waste and allow proper nourishment to reach your blood. When your liver gets out of order proper digestion and nourishment stop—you're poisoned with the waste that decomposes in your intestines. Nervous troubles and rheumatic pains arise from this poison. You become constipated, stomach and kidneys can't work properly. The whole system is affected and you feel "rotten," head-sachy, backache, dizzy, tired out—a ready prey for sickness and disease.

Thousands of people are never sick, and have won prompt relief from these mistakes with "Improved Fruit-a-lives Liver Tablets." The liver is toned up, the other organs function
normally and lasting, good health results.
Today "Improved Fruit-a-lives" are Canada's largest selling liver tablets. They must be good!
Try them yourself NOW! Let "Fruit-a-lives" put you back on the road to lasting health—feel like a new person. 25c, 50c.

"The Best For You, the Perfect Health!"

I was badly run down and terribly
nervous. My digestion was poor and I was always constipated. "Fruit-
a-lives" soon
made me better
and I have no
more trouble with nothing like it for making me well
and giving me
new pep and energy. After years of bad health
made me feel fine.
Mr. Roy Degroot, Chatham, Ont.

"Long Years of Suffering, Now Full of Life!"

For a long time I suffered frequent headaches and backaches. I could not do my usual work.
I tried "Fruit-
a-lives". The pains
came less frequently until in a few weeks, they stopped entirely. "Fruit-a-lives" really made me feel like a new person.
Mrs. A. J. Schwartz, Oak, Ont.

LET'S KEEP OUR CANADA
a happy land for them

PINKY-WHITE DIMPLES; a button of a nose; wee, slender fingers clutching at your coverlet—what kind of a world is this to which you will awake?

Your life, we hope, will be rich in love and laughter. God forbid that your Canada should ever come under the heel of a ruthless barbarism, where babies are born to be the future shock troops, or the mothers of a brutal, military race.

We promise that you shall inherit a Canada blessed with the liberty our fathers bequeathed to us. You shall be free as we are free.

So we gladly lend our money to our country in this crisis. We will buy Victory Bonds to the very limit. We must and we will make sure that the threat of a brutal way of life is banished forever.

HOW TO BUY—Give your order to the Victory Loan salesman who calls on you.
Or place it in the hands of any bank, or any bank, or give it to any trust company.
Or send it to your local Victory Loan Headquarters. Or you can authorize your employer to start a regular payroll savings plan for you. Bonds may be bought in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and larger. Salesman, bank, trust company or your local Victory Loan Headquarters will be glad to give you every assistance in making out your order form.

MOUNT ALBERT Institute Will Hold 5-Day Nutrition Course

The pupils of the continuation and public schools of the village are giving a program in the town hall next Tuesday evening at 8.30 o'clock in support of the second Victory loan campaign, and the proceeds of this concert will go to the British War Victims' Fund.

Mr. John Case suffered a sudden paralytic stroke on Tuesday of last week and is still very ill at home.

Mrs. Robt. Davis is confined to bed for a few weeks. She was taken ill suddenly on Saturday evening.

Mr. A. Madill and his daughter, Mrs. Guy Williamson, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Madill's son, Mr. Morgan Madill, at Acton.

Miss Ione Sinclair, R.N., has been appointed night supervisor on the staff of York county hospital, Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. Almer Coomer spent Sunday with friends at Baldwin.

The nutrition course will be held in two weeks, commencing Monday, March 2, under the leadership of Miss B. Wallace and will be a five-day course, held in the afternoons.

The course had been announced for this week but was postponed on account of the instructor's illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pearson have received delayed letters from their son, Sgt.-Pilot Jack Pearson, who is well and at the time of writing was in Scotland and having a nice time.

The February meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. J. Crowle, when plans were made for the nutrition course and the Red Cross war emergency course, to be given later. The program, given by the girls, consisted of a paper by Velma Thompson on the "Art of Everyday Living," music by Mrs. Donald Stiver and a demonstration of biscuit-making by Mrs. Sinclair. A social half-hour and a lovely lunch were enjoyed at the close.

The following articles were packed this week by the Mount Albert unit of the Red Cross: seven large quilts, three cot quilts, eight pairs of pyjamas, nine pairs of khaki gloves, 14 pairs of whole mitts, 19 turtleneck sweaters, nine seamen's scarves, six baby scarves, nine baby coats, nine baby bonnets, two pairs booties, one pair socks, 10 pairs of long stockings, 17 pairs of short stockings, four pairs of soldiers' socks.

Refugee articles: nine pairs of child's mitts, one grey sweater, one pair of socks, second-hand clothing, one shawl, one skirt, one dress, one child's coat, one overcoat.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Leach, Lyall and Lois, of Toronto, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Wilson.

Miss Verna Harrison and Mr. Geo. Wilson of Toronto spent the weekend in town.

Capt. W. L. Carruthers, M.O., who has been at Halifax, was home on leave this week.

Miss Gertrude Moore of Toronto was in town on Saturday.

The world's day of prayer service will be held in the United church on Friday afternoon at 2.30. All ladies are invited to come. This prayer meeting, which is held annually around the world, is interdenominational.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wilson of Toronto were at the home of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Davis, over the weekend.

Mr. Frank Spence, M.L.A., and Mrs. Spence, of Toronto, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Blyth.

The Veterans' euchre and dance will be held on Friday evening in the hall, when proceeds will be for the benefit of the boys overseas. Several lucky prizes will be given.

The Valentine dance in the hall was well attended and several went away with handsome prizes.

HOLLAND LANDING Country Pupils Visit City, Explore Museum

Miss Kendrick, local school teacher, and Miss Fowler, of Second St. school, took several of the pupils to Toronto on Saturday to visit the Royal Ontario Museum. The pupils all reported a most interesting and enjoyable trip and greatly appreciated the teachers' kindness.

The women's world day of prayer will be held in the United church on Friday afternoon at 2.30 p.m. The service is non-denominational and all the women of the village and district are invited.

The Young People's Union of the United church held a skating party and social on Thursday and all had a grand time. The usual meeting will be held next Wednesday at 8.30, D.S.T. H. Tomes will be in charge.

Miss Bessie Evans and Miss Brunson of Orillia were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. M. Evans.

Mr. Jos. O'Connor, a brother of Mrs. A. Moffat, who is working in Peterboro, is seriously ill with pneumonia there.

Mrs. Harry Bell of Toronto spent a couple of days last week with Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson and family.

been distributed throughout North York prior to the convention. Before the close of the convention five centres from four townships had responded.

After full justice was done to the very excellent meal provided by the United church ladies the evening session was opened with Rev. Burton Hill of Newmarket Friends church leading in a period of devotion.

The oratorical contest, usually the highlight of this convention, was of exceptional merit, material being fresh, and the up-to-the-minute topics were well taken and by some speakers thrillingly delivered.

The contestants in the junior class were: Ruth Mary Winch, Keswick, Wilma Adair, Newtonbrook, Dorlene Gray, Lemonville, and Margaret Case, Hartman public school (near Aurora); intermediate class, Betty Preston, Wesley Sunday-school, Vanderford; senior class, Hazel Campbell, Newtonbrook, on "Liquor as a Menace to our Troops;" Jean Cunningham, Queensville, on "Alcohol and War;" Erla Gray, Lemonville, on "An Enemy Within Our Gates;" and Nora Graham, Wesley Sunday-school, Vanderford, on "A Challenge to Sober Living."

The judges, Mrs. J. A. Maitland, Newmarket, Mrs. Clement, Richmond Hill, and J. M. Walton, Aurora, gave Margaret Case, Betty Preston and Nora Graham first place in their respective classes. Mr. Walton, reporting for the judges, remarked on the absence of the boys this year, suggesting various reasons for this.

While the judges were conferring, R. A. Whittam, of the federation, head office, read 50 questions on temperance which were recently sent out to all temperance posts. The assembly read the answers in unison. Mr. Whittam encouraged the study of such questions during the coming year so that an oral contest might be held on them later.

Arrangements were made for the senior speaker to attend the provincial convention at Ottawa Feb. 18 and 19. Rev. A. H. Halbert of Newtonbrook moved a hearty vote of thanks for the use of the church and the excellent supper provided. The convention was closed with God Save the King and the benediction, which was pronounced by Rev. W. A. Westcott of the Temperanceville circuit.

The Elmhurst Beach W. I. met at the home of Mrs. J. Clark. Valentines were distributed to all present from the Institute Valentine box. Each one read the verse on her Valentine as a roll-call.

Rev. Gordon Lapp gave a very interesting address on health and health conditions in various provinces and told how health plans are being carried out.

Miss Evelyn King sang a solo.

Mrs. Lloyd Pollock gave a short paper, including interesting items on Henry Ford's rubber plantation, the preservation of trees in Texas and the history of tuffing quilts.

The lunch, the usual wonderful banquet which Mrs. Clark so generously provides, along with the usual Institute lunch, was very much enjoyed by all.

Several guests were present, Mrs. M. Rye, Mrs. W. Draper, Mrs. Lunn and Mrs. Alvin Rye.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sturdy have moved to their new home, the former Brierly home.

Mrs. Selby Sedore is home from the York county hospital.

Joe Hodgins is in training at Newmarket camp.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Mr. James Peters.

Quite a number of the community hockey fans went to Midland on Friday evening to see Sutton and Midland teams play, the score being 7 to 6 in favor of Sutton.

Reeve Ross McMillan is home from the hospital.

Mrs. Fred Lockerie spent a few days in Toronto last week.

Mrs. White of Parry Sound and Miss Peters of Toronto, who have been at Mr. and Mrs. Obee Peters, returned home last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews and Frank are having a sale and moving to Queensville this month.

Mrs. Selby Sedore, who is in York county hospital, Newmarket, is improving.

NORTH GWILLIMBURY
Township Red Cross
Helps Bombed Victims
Plans have been completed for a display tea, sponsored by the North Gwillimbury branch of the Red Cross, to be held in the township hall at Belhaven next Thursday afternoon, Feb. 26, from two o'clock on. This is the second day of the monthly work days. The display of work will show the various types done by the society.

The transportation is being arranged so that everyone will be able to attend. Wm. Purdy is the convenor of transportation, and working in each unit to assist him will be the vice-president of the Belhaven branch, Mrs. Whittaker; Ravenshoe, Mrs. T. Johnston; Elmhurst, Mrs. Hodgins; and Willow Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Mic Sedore.

Afternoon tea will be served and a silver collection taken for the general funds of the branch, which are being used almost entirely for the bombed victims. Will all who have small card tables kindly bring them when they come to work at the hall? Box lunches will be in order as usual. The Ravenshoe unit will be in charge.

The general business meeting of the branch was held on Feb. 3. Good reports were read from the various departments.

G. White, convenor of salvage, urged that everything possible be saved. A collection will be made shortly. S. Fairbairn is assisting Mr. White, as well as the school teachers. It is hoped to have a printed bulletin issued each month describing the work being done.

From now on the branch executive will meet once every two months and a general business meeting will be held twice a year.

Two social and money-raising events were held recently, under the able direction of Mr. and Mrs. W. Davison, a card party at Keswick public school and a dance in the township hall in Belhaven. Both were well attended.

Eversley
Farmers are planning to haul their wood and ice just now. The difficulty is to find good sleighing. The roads are scraped so clean of snow to make good going for autos that hauling sleighs is almost too much for horses. The roads are wide enough. Is there not some way in which one part of the road can be made right for teams?

Edgar Bowen and Miss A. A. Ferguson attended the temperance convention held in Trinity United church, Newmarket, on Friday afternoon and evening of last week.

Heartily congratulations are being extended to Miss Betty Ball of Eversley, who is teacher at Hartman's Corners school, and whose two pupils were the successful orators in the temperance oratorical contest held at the convention.

Vanderford's Barbara Case, aged 10 years, won the trophy in the junior contest, and Nora Graham, aged 13 years, won the senior trophy. These two girls are pupils of Miss Ball and were trained by her. Nora Graham won the junior and the intermediate during the past two years and now that she has completed the senior she goes to Ottawa to the provincial convention this week to compete there.

Wesley Sunday-school at Vanderford is the Sunday-school in which these splendid silver cups will be displayed.

Eversley Presbyterian church entered the new time schedule on Sunday. The hours for service now will be 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m., D.S.T.

Queensville
Morley Bedford of Toronto visited his uncle, J. D. Moore, last week. Mr. Moore was taken to York county hospital on Sunday with pneumonia.

SHIPS 1,013 ARTICLES
At the annual meeting of the Georgina branch of the Red Cross it was revealed that this branch has enjoyed another successful year.

The society has a small membership, with an average of about 15 persons meeting at the hall in Pefferlaw each week to work and give out supplies. There being no grant from the county for this branch, the money for these supplies is raised by various parties and entertainments.

Apart from the work completed at Pefferlaw, articles are sent in by the ladies of Egypt, Virginia, Cedar Brae and Port Bolster.

The following is a list of garments completed and sent in to Red Cross headquarters, 252 hospital supplies, 254 soldiers' woollen garments, 262 refugee garments, 33 quilts, two 32-piece layettes, four 37-piece layettes, making a total of 1,013 articles. In addition there are 105 articles ready for shipment.

A supper sponsored by this branch netted $57.50 for the Russian Medical Relief Fund.

The Field Comforts Committee have been looking after 22 soldiers, sending cigarettes each month and boxes every three months.

At the opening of the school term a Junior Red Cross was organized in the senior room of the school. The children have worked faithfully in the collection of salvage and have realized a considerable sum from its sale. With this money they have purchased war stamps and cancelled them, sent donations to the Christmas Cheer for British Children and the Junior Red Cross war funds.

Both organizations have a considerable balance on hand.

SCOTT TOWNSHIP
Won't Be Responsible
For Damage To Cars
A motion was passed to notify the public that cars left parked at the side of the road in the township would be at the owner's risk should they be damaged by the snow-plow, at the regular meeting of Scott township council at the township hall on Feb. 7.

The treasurer was asked to pay to the patriotic societies the balance of monies on hand from the one mill levy collected last year.

The council, as advised by the council of municipal affairs, examined the surety bonds of the treasurer and the tax collector, and accepted them.

The department of highways advised the council that the subsidy would not be paid this year on monies spent on construction work and suggested the appropriate amendment of the by-law. A communication from the department of municipal affairs submitted views regarding unemployment insurance as related to municipal employees.

Accounts passed included: pay roll No. 1, labor on roads, $10; Bruce Pegg, tractor, two men dragging four hours, $5.20; Harold Morrison, trucking, 4 hours repair culvert, $4; Newton Thompson, moving drag line and grader, five hours, $8.25; Presbyterian church, storing snow fence, $5; Allan Crone, snow plowing, 15 hours, $42.75; W. O. Webster, registering births, marriages and deaths, $0.75; Hydro-Electric, lighting township hall, $3.82; Times Journal, printing to date, $17.80.

The council adjourned to meet on Saturday afternoon, March 7, at 1.30 p.m.

Hope
Hope, Feb. 13.-Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Pegg and Donny were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Pegg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Mount Albert, spent Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Broderick.

Mr. Geo. Broderick, Sr., of Mount Albert, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Broderick.

Mrs. Geo. Williams spent a few days in Toronto last week.

Mrs. M. L. Pegg and Donny visited Mrs. A. Trivett, Newmarket, on Wednesday.

Master Earl Herdman visited the Fairbairns on Sunday.
